5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

Height, 20 inches; length, 25¼ inches

On the rough high banks of a small pool at right foreground, two heavy bulls, rivals, fiercely lock horns with one another. In the distance, at left, are other cattle before a high wooded hill which drops to a low ridge across the rain-clouded horizon; overhead a blue sky, with driving warm white clouds.

Height, 35 inches; length, 51 inches

UNDER a brilliant blue sky in which tenuous cloud masses float lightly—colorful masses they are, white and pale gray, mauve, pink, yellow—a bit of the Dutch coast is seen, the view being seaward. The foreground is a broad flat beach, its moist surfaces reflecting many color tones. To right are abutting dunes, and beyond their tops are suggestions of trees or tall chimneys. The sea is seen at the left, with vague sails in the distance, and along the shore line in the middle distance the waves are breaking into tossing white surf as they roll up the beach. Taking up a large part of the view, and most conspicuous, is the hull of one of the heavy, broad-bottomed Holland sailing boats, dismasted, leeboard hauled up against her side and two figures apparently at work aboard her. She affords the artist the best of his color scheme, in her weathered grays and greens and rich mahogany-browns. Beside her a peasant, in blue blouse, yellow-gray trousers and sabots, stands at the head of a white horse drawing a loaded two-wheeled cart.
